Saugeen Shafts Hosts IFAA Indoor Tournament

Saugeen Shafts hosted an IFAA (International Field Archery Association) Indoor Tournament this past weekend with a full contingent of archers.

The largest division of the tournament was the Ladies Cadet Compound, with eight girls competing. Jessica Watson placed first with a 295 out of a possible 300 followed by Nicole Traynor in second and Ragen Yaraskavitch from Bancroft in third place. Tristian Stevens and Daryk Davies battled it out for first place in the Men's Junior Compound with Tristian posting a 298 to take first place.

There were two perfect 300 scores posted, with Cole French's coming in the Men's Senior Bowhunter to take first place. The second 300 came in the competitive Men's Compound class with Josh Stone posting the 300 to edge out Den Gemmeti who had a 299.

The next event at Saugeen Shafts will be their annual Christmas Kids Tournament on January 4th.
